WHEREAS,

the ISDH, which reports to me as the Governor, has used legal authority and powers under Indiana law to declare and respond to the public health emergencies on behalf of our state, and resolves, in addition to various other actions and powers of the Governor of Indiana and the ISDH, as determined by the Governor to have been necessary, the need to issue a stay-at-home order in connection with public health emergencies under the Code of Indiana (IC 16-19-2),

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

Resolves further, that the Indiana Department of Health, the ISDH, and the Executive Director of the ISDH, upon the advice and recommendations of the Indiana Board of Health, after consideration of all factors, including the continuing emergency, including the following considerations:

WHEREAS,

in light of the above, and after consultation with the Governor and the Commissioner of Health, it is necessary and proper to enter the further action to protect public health, safety, and welfare, and to prevent the spread of disease, to amend and supersede the action taken by the Governor order of March 26, 2020, the Governor order of March 15, 2020, the Governor order of March 11, 2020, the Governor order of March 6, 2020, and the Governor order of March 2, 2020, which rescinded the Public Health Emergency, the Governor order of March 26, 2020, the Governor order of March 15, 2020, the Governor order of March 11, 2020, the Governor order of March 6, 2020, and the Governor order of March 2, 2020, which rescinded the Public Health Emergency,

WHEREAS,

4. Non-Essential Business and Operations Must Close

No business or activity is to continue, except:

- Essential Government Operations
- Essential Businesses and Operations
- Some Health Care Facilities
- Some Religious Facilities
- Some Community Services

Businesses and operations, including those providing essential services, must follow the guidance of the Governor.

5. Stay at Home or Place of Residence

All individuals are required to stay at home or in their place of residence except for essential activities.

6. The Executive Order

The Executive Order shall be effective at 11:59p.m. on April 6, 2020, and remain in full force until further notice.

1. Essential Businesses and Operations
   - Page 6
2. Essential Government Functions
   - Page 4
3. Healthcare & Public Health Operations
   - Page 5
4. Essential Retail
   - Page 5
5. Essential Infrastructure
   - Page 5
6. Essential Governmental Functions
   - Page 5
7. Essential Business and Operations
   - Page 5
8. Essential Activities
   - Page 5

In order to properly implement the full, complete, and proper meaning of this Executive Order, an individual or group must interpret the Executive Order, read, and follow the definition of the terms and phrases which are shown by Ordre, and then determine whether the action or inaction falls under the categories or types of action required under the Executive Order.
To care for a family member, friend, or pet in another household, and to transport family numbers, friends, or pets as allowed by the Executive Order:

c. To the Care of Others

The Executive Order mandates that contact with non-essential businesses prohibited or allowed by

6. Prohibited and Permitted Travel

The following are examples of prohibited and permitted travel:

- The Executive Order prohibits all non-essential travel. However, some travel is allowed for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

- The Executive Order mandates that contact with non-essential businesses prohibited or allowed by

5. Prohibited Activities

The Executive Order prohibits all non-essential activities. However, some activities are allowed for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

4. For Outdoor Activity

The Executive Order mandates that outdoor activities are prohibited, except for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

3. For Certain Types of Work

The Executive Order mandates that certain types of work are prohibited, except for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

2. For Necesary Supplies and Services

The Executive Order mandates that necessary supplies and services are allowed for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

1. For Health and Safety

The Executive Order mandates that health and safety measures are essential to prevent the spread of disease. However, some social distancing measures are allowed for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.

7. Leaving the Home for Essential Activities is Permitted

The Executive Order mandates that leaving the home is allowed for essential purposes, such as medical emergencies, work, and the care of pets or family members.
11. Human Service Operations

Human Service Operations shall be designed and operated so that:

(a) Services are provided to all persons in the eligible population group who are in need of services in order to maintain or improve their personal and/or family health and well-being.

(b) Services are provided in a manner that is accessible to all persons in the eligible population group.

(c) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the principles of human service operations.

(d) Services are provided in a manner that is responsive to the needs of the eligible population group.

(e) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the policies and procedures of the human service provider.

(f) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the laws and regulations governing human service operations.

(g) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the standards of care established by professional organizations.

(h) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the ethics and values of the human service provider.

(i) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the goals and objectives of the human service provider.

(j) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the resources available to the human service provider.

(k) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the needs of the eligible population group.

(l) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the policies and procedures of the human service provider.

(m) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the laws and regulations governing human service operations.

(n) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the standards of care established by professional organizations.

(o) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the ethics and values of the human service provider.

(p) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the goals and objectives of the human service provider.

(q) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the resources available to the human service provider.

(r) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the needs of the eligible population group.

(s) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the policies and procedures of the human service provider.

(t) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the laws and regulations governing human service operations.

(u) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the standards of care established by professional organizations.

(v) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the ethics and values of the human service provider.

(w) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the goals and objectives of the human service provider.

(x) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the resources available to the human service provider.

(y) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the needs of the eligible population group.

(z) Services are provided in a manner that is consistent with the policies and procedures of the human service provider.
Simultaneous and essential operation of defense and homeland security and public safety, national defense, and emergency related operations. The "essential governmental function" means functions, programs, or activities of national importance or state or local importance that are necessary to the performance of the government's other functions and that ensure the delivery of essential governmental programs, services, and activities.

The essential governmental function means all activities provided by the state or local governments that are necessary to the performance of the government's other functions.

1.4 Essential businesses and operations

For the purposes of this Order, "essential business" means any business or professional practice, including any enterpreneur, non-profit, or volunteer, operating in accordance with federal, state, or local directions or guidelines.

13 Business Covered by this Order

This Executive Order does not apply to the public sector's governmental activities.

The phrase "essential governmental function" means all activities provided by the state or local governments that are necessary to the performance of the government's other functions.

12 Essential Governmental Function

Imported to essential functions are defined by the phrase "essential governmental function" in order to avoid any unnecessary or unnecessary activities.

The phrase "essential governmental function" means all activities provided by the state or local governments that are necessary to the performance of the government's other functions.

The phrase "essential governmental function" means all activities provided by the state or local governments that are necessary to the performance of the government's other functions.
Excessive frugality at the expense of the students of a school.

This excessive order is consonant with, and does not contradict, any prior is manifest to the greater extent possible.

of performing essential functions, providing that social services of six-year old person literate institution (including public and private pre-K-12 schools, colleges, and

1. Educational Institutions

A. Academic, educational, and research institutions

B. Municipal educational institutions

2. Critical Trades

A. Infrastructure and supply chains

B. Financial and insurance institutions

3. Car sales and businesses needed for transportation

A. Media

B. Religious

4. Organizations that provide charitable and social services

A. Food, forestry, and agriculture real estate services (including appraisal and life insurance), professional services (such as legal services, accounting services, insurance services, and management services), and other services (including child care, home-based care, and other services). In addition, the following services are included:

- Professional services to individuals or organizations for adult, senior, children's, and other services.
- Home-based care for adults, seniors, children, and other services.
- Home-based care and services for real estate services.
- Home-based care and services for professional services.
- Home-based care and services for other services.

In addition, the following services are also included:

- Transportation services for essential businesses and operations.
- Transportation services for other essential businesses and operations.
- Transportation services for home and other services.

In addition, the following services are also included:

- Support for essential businesses and operations.
- Support for other essential businesses and operations.
- Support for home and other services.

In addition, the following services are also included:

- Support for consumption of fresh produce.
- Support for consumption of off-premise
- Support for consumption of food.
- Support for consumption of other services.
16. Essential Travel continue to work remotely from their residences;

b. the minimum necessary activities to facilitate employees of the business being able to appraise and employ expertise of its related functions; preserve the cohesion of the physical plant and equipment, ensure security, access, process and the minimum necessary activities to maintain the value of the business's inventory;

for the purpose of the Executive Order, the term „minimum necessary activities“ includes the

13. Minimum Basic Operations

Funeral, mourning, cremation, burial, cemetery, and related services;

x. Funeral Services;

hotels and motels, the essential they are used for lodging and delivery or cattle road;

w. Hotels and Motels;

when possible, the essential businesses and operations, provided that these should be done by and personal services on the well-being and safety of individuals present in where minimum essential activities, including the administration of health and welfare funds

v. Critical Labor Union Functions; products to other essential businesses and operations, including portions of the emergency communications network, electric, gas, water, include all communications, including the administration of health and welfare funds;

ii. Manufacture, Distribution, and Supply Chain for Critical Products and Industries;
C. Ensure that your sick leave policies are up to date, flexible, and non-punitive in order to encourage employees to stay home if they are ill. The spread of COVID-19 may also affect work schedules and travel plans. Employees should be encouraged to telecommute or work from home if possible.

20. COVID-19 Information and Checklist for All Business/Employees

Check if have any COVID-19 updates and updates on their respective websites.

Execute Order

18. Intent of the Executive Order

The intent of the Executive Order is to ensure the maximum number of people self-isolate.

17. Social Distancing Requirements

Where possible, the “six-foot distance” rule should be followed. Where this is not possible, other measures may be taken, such as face masks and gloves. Where possible, employees should work from home or be on leave.

16. Personal Health and Hygiene Practices

Hand sanitizer and disinfectant products should be available for employees and customers.

15. Social Media and Marketing

Marketing should be conducted in a way that promotes public health and prevents the spread of COVID-19.

14. Public Health Measures

Where possible, employees should be encouraged to work from home or be on leave.

13. Employee Health

Employees should be encouraged to stay home if they are feeling ill.

12. Contact Tracing

Employees should be encouraged to notify their supervisors if they are feeling ill.

11. Business Continuity

Business continuity plans should be in place and reviewed regularly.

10. Telework

Telework should be encouraged where possible.

9. Office Hours

Office hours should be shortened to allow for increased cleaning.

8. Employee Training

Employee training should be conducted in a way that promotes public health and prevents the spread of COVID-19.

7. Executive Order

The Executive Order should be enforced by state and local law enforcement.

6. Social Distancing

Employees should be encouraged to work from home or be on leave.

5. Personal Health and Hygiene

Employees should be encouraged to wash their hands frequently and avoid touching their face.

4. Employee Health Assessment

Employees should be encouraged to stay home if they are feeling ill.

3. Business Continuity Planning

Business continuity plans should be in place and reviewed regularly.

2. Contact Tracing

Employees should be encouraged to notify their supervisors if they are feeling ill.

1. Executive Order

The Executive Order should be enforced by state and local law enforcement.
the 1st, 2nd, & 3rd

Governor of Indiana

ON THIS 27th DAY OF MARCH, 2020,

attaching the entire seal of the State of Indiana, hereby enacting all my hand and sealed to be true etc., hereof. I, Eric J. Holcomb,

Secretary of State

Att'y

G. 0. p. O. L. I. R. H. 0. M. 0.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

This Executive Order, in supplement to, and deemed to be part of, Executive Order 20-02, certified to be correct:

whereas, the provisions of the Executive Order 20-02, including the health emergency declared in the Public Health Emergency, as well as any provision of this Executive Order, are hereby vacated and rendered null and void:

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, Eric J. Holcomb, Governor of Indiana, do hereby certify this document to be correct.

22. Subject to Authority

The Executive Order, in supplement to, and deemed to be part of, Executive Order 20-02, including the health emergency declared in the Public Health Emergency, as well as any provision of this Executive Order, is hereby vacated and rendered null and void.

2. No Limitation on Authority

Subject to the provisions of Executive Order 20-02, the authority of the Governor of Indiana to issue, amend, or rescind any Executive Order is hereby granted.

The Governor is authorized to issue, amend, or rescind any Executive Order as necessary to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.

F. Recommendation to Employers

Employers are recommended to take all necessary steps to ensure the safety and health of their employees, including but not limited to:

a. Implementing strict hygiene guidelines, including regular handwashing and disinfecting of workspaces.

b. Encouraging employees to wear masks, including at home when outside.

c. Providing personal protective equipment, such as masks, to employees.

d. Implementing social distancing measures within businesses.

e. Encouraging remote work.

f. Limiting non-essential travel and gatherings.

The Governor's authority is hereby granted to take all necessary steps to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.